

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NORTH DAKOTA
SOUTHWESTERN DIVISION

United States of America,) vs.)

)
John Eric Hobert,)	Case No. 1:14-cr-190
Defendant.)

Defendant has been charged in an indictment with two offenses: conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute and distribute a controlled substance; and possession of a firearm by convicted felon. At the time the indictment was returned, defendant was incarcerated by the State of North Dakota at the James River Correctional Center (JRCC) in Jamestown, North Dakota.

On March 7, 2014, defendant made his initial appearance and was arraigned. His appearance for these proceedings was secured by a writ of habeas corpus ad prosequendum. At the close of these proceedings, defendant waived in open court his rights under the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act and was returned to State custody.

On February 20, 2014, defendant filed a Motion for Release. He anticipates that he will be released from State Custody on March 25, 2015. He requests that, upon his release from State custody, this court permit him to reside at a residential facility with work release privileges pending trial.

On March 6, 2015, the Government filed a response to defendant's motion. It avers there is a presumption of detention in this case that defendant has not rebutted. It further avers that release of defendant is not warranted given his extensive criminal history.

The court shall take defendant's motion under advisement. When the United States Marshal's Service executes on its detainer and takes custody of defendant, the court shall contact the parties to schedule a hearing on defendant's motion as it previously intimated that it would hold a detention hearing when defendant is released from State custody.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 10th day of March, 2015.
